
Expression of Interest Beth Brown-Reinsel

Workshops...

Traditional knitting using natural fibres is currently enjoying a worldwide revival amongst fibre crafters and the growth of 'Slow Fashion', which will be featured at Festival 2017, supports this resurgence.

Topics...

Beth's workshops are aimed at intermediate to advanced knitters. Topics include a range of different techniques and designs:

- Introduction to knitting techniques
- Mittens, mitts and gloves
- Scottish Fair Isle
- Norwegian Fana
- Norwegian Setesdal
- Swedish North Halland
- Cowichan Sweater
- Designing Arans
- Designing Ganseys

Beth Brown-Reinsel...

Beth Brown-Reinsel is internationally recognised as an expert in traditional and historical knitting crafts and techniques from around the world. Beth's traditional techniques and skills work well with the Festival medieval theme, 'Entwine'.

Beth has taught historic knitting workshops for over 25 years both in the United States and abroad. Her love of traditional methods and her skill in imparting that information to others is well known in the USA, Europe and Scandinavia.

Beth wrote the popular classic knitting book 'Knitting Ganseys', has produced three DVDs and designs numerous patterns for traditional knitwear. She shares her passion through her traditional patterns, workshops, and Knit-Along (KAL) classes via the Internet.

Workshop Venues...

Workshops will be available in several locations throughout New Zealand during April and May. Please indicate your preferred Area and topic on the expression of interest form.

A residential 3-day workshop will be held in Christchurch 25 April – 28 April following the Canterbury Festival. This workshop includes accommodation for four nights and all meals. Registrants will arrive on Tuesday 25th for an evening meal and get-together. Workshops will be tutored for six hours per day from Wednesday 26th to Friday 28th. Venue to be arranged.

Please send expressions of interest to:

Sue Giller
PO Box 530
Ashburton 7740

P: 03 307 1435

E: education@creativefibre.org.nz

Name

Address

Postcode

Membership number.....

Email

Phone

Please tick the box if you are interested in attending Canterbury residential course:

Preferred Area

Preferred topic.....

